Green Cove Springs City Council to Decide New City Manager This Week

Aug. 27, 2018, Green Cove Springs, FL - The four finalists for the city manager position will be going through a two-day final interview process this Thursday, Aug. 30, and Friday, Aug. 31.

During that two-day period, each candidate will be talking to members of the City Council and city leadership individually.

The interview process also includes a public Meet-and-Greet with all four candidates 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 30, at the Clay County Council on Aging, 604 Walnut Street, Green Cove Springs. Refreshments will be provided. On Friday, Aug. 31, candidates will go through a final interview with the City Council in the City Hall Council Chambers, 321 Walnut Street, Green Cove Springs, from 8 a.m. to 2:45 p.m. These final interviews will be open to the public, and the city will adjourn after making its final selection for the City Manager position.

The final four candidates for City Manager are Steve Kennedy from Americus, GA, Green Cove Springs Assistant City Manager Mike Null, Green Cove Springs resident Colin Groff, and Mike Renshaw from Winder, GA. Tad Davis dropped out of consideration for the position.
